OCTOBER MEETING TOPIC: Fad vs Fact: What Ergonomics Solutions Do You Really Need?

Title: Fad vs. Fact: What Ergonomics Solutions Do You Really Need?

Description:

When workplace ergonomics is done right, everyone is on board. Selecting the proper solutions, getting management support to fund it, and making sure employees are involved during the implementation process will not only reduce injury and illness rates, but will improve productivity and employee morale. This session will uncover the most important elements needed to implement and manage a sustainable ergonomics process and will share readily available solutions for the office, manufacturing, processing, and warehouse environments. Passing fads will be exposed, and best practices from Fortune 1000 companies will be shared.

Learning objectives:

This session will address several topics for those that are new to, or need a refresher in, ergonomics.

Attendees will:

1. Understand the myths and truths about some common “ergonomic” products and solutions
2. Distinguish what truly makes a product solution ergonomically sound
3. Understand how to get management support and employee engagement for solutions

A Message from our Chapter President; Brad Weber

Hello to all members of the Southwestern Ohio Chapter of ASSP.

Over the past eight or nine months we have had a major shift to the normal routine in our lives! As we explore new ways of conducting business in our world, there are numerous resources from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA). These organizations have developed content applicable to help employers keep workers safe and productive during an unplanned event, like the recent COVID-19 pandemic.

I believe we have accomplished some great things in the chapter in the recent past despite the current situation at hand. Our purpose is to serve chapter membership with opportunities to experience what others are doing to keep employees safe on the job, learn from industry experts, and network to expand your professional partnerships. The years go by and we still see companies and communities experience unsafe situations and their effects. Certainly, a need still exists for safety professionals to continue the noble profession to protect human life and property. The Southwestern Ohio Chapter of the American Society of Safety Professionals is a volunteer organization that allows for one to develop leadership skills, organizational skills, communication skills, and event planning skills. If you are interested in supporting your local chapter of ASSP, then please let us know. We certainly could use your assistance in the running of this great chapter. Your time is valuable, and I commit not to waste it.

Thanks again for being a valued member of ASSP in the chapter. Brad Weber, President

Want to give back to your community while serving ASSP? We have a neat volunteer opportunity that is flexible and can meet nearly everyone's busy lifestyle. The Freestore Foodbank is in need of volunteers in many locations around or Chapter's service area./ The days and times as well as contact information to schedule your time is listed below. This is one way that our Chapter plans to service our community. All we ask is that you let us know when and where you are volunteering. Maybe we can get a few more interested members to join you too.

Good Afternoon Volunteers,

Thank you for your continued support of the Freestore Foodbank. We are happy to announce the opening of volunteer shifts at our Mayerson Distribution Center, 1250 Tennessee Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45229. Volunteer shifts will be limited to 20/25 volunteers. We are offering 3 volunteer shifts per week from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. You can view available volunteer shifts by clicking on the link below.

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS!

Student Chapter Section:

Your development as a safety professional is not the result of a single course or a memorable professor. It's the result of a whole series of decisions you make about your future career. At ASSP, we provide you with opportunities to build your network, expand your education, grow your career, learn from industry experts and earn scholarships.

If you are attending the university of Cincinnati and would like to join our student section of ASSP, please contact Professor Kim Jay, PhD Mechanical engineering, Rhodes Hall 598B University of Cincinnati, (513) 555-6300, jay.kim@uc.edu, and or Brad Weber to find out more and become a Student Member today.

Scholarship Opportunity:

Did you say FREE MONEY?

Since 1990, the ASSP Foundation has awarded millions of dollars in scholarships to students beginning their studies in occupational safety seeking to continue their education. We offer more than 100 awards each year, ranging from $500 to $15,000 each. Scholarships are available to students pursuing occupational safety and health (OSH) and closely related degrees both at the undergraduate and graduate level.

Students enrolled in OSH-related majors and meeting basic criteria are eligible to apply for ASSP Foundation scholarships. View all the basic criteria as well as Frequently Asked Questions to determine your eligibility here. Applicants only need to complete one application to be eligible for all available scholarship awards.

Key Dates:

September 15	Applications Open
December 1	Applications Due (11:59 CT)
May 15	Awards Announced

OSHA 10-Hr General Industry

Volunteers needed to help the local chapter of AIHA to present sections of the OSHA 10 hour general industry class. If you are interested in conducting the entire 10 hour session, you must hold current OSHA Outreach Trainer certification. If you just want to help teach a couple of segment for the 10 hour then you just need to be a subject matter expert in the area you want to present. If you are interested in helping present, please contact either (Brad.Weber@sheakley.com or Jonathan.Zimmerman@kellogg.com).
